- (A) Length of delay is no matter; acceptability of the explanation is the only criterion
- (B) The condonation of delay is a matter of discretion of the court
- (C) Widened the scope and ambit of law of limitation
- (D) All of the above.

Ans. [D]

Explanation :-

In this N. Balakrishnan v. M. Krishnamurthy SC held: "It is axiomatic that condonation of delay is a matter of discretion of the court. Section 5 of the Limitation Act does not say that such discretion can be exercised only if the delay is within a certain limit.

62. A suit for possession of immovable property based on title can be brought within 12 years from

- (A) the date of dispossession
- (B) the date of demand of possession
- (C) the date on which the defendant refuses to deliver possession
- (D) the date on which possession of defendant becomes adverse

Ans. [A]

Explanation :-

Article 64 governs suits for possession based on possessory right. Twelve years from the date of dispossession is the starting point of limitation under Article 64.

63. If the defendant is abroad during the period of limitation

- (A) such period is excluded from the period of limitation
- (B) such period is included in the period of limitation

- (C) such period is excluded from the period of limitation only if the period to stay abroad is more than thirty days
- (D) none of these

Ans. [A]

Linked Provisions :-

Section 15 - Exclusion of time during which proceedings are suspended.

- Section 24 - Maintenance pendente lite and expenses of proceedings.

Explanation :-

Under Section 22(1) Every proceeding under this Act shall be conducted in camera and it shall not be lawful for any person to print or publish any matter in relation to any such proceeding except a judgment of the High Court or of the Supreme Court printed or published with the previous permission of the court.

94. Escheat under Hindu Succession Act means -

- (A) Individual dies intestate and doesn't leave behind an heir
- (B) Individual dies intestate and doesn't leave behind an heir, who is qualified to succeed to the property
- (C) Individual dies intestate and doesn't leave behind an heir, who is qualified to succeed to the property, the property devolves on the Government
- (D) Individual dies intestate and doesn't leave behind an heir, who is qualified to succeed to the property, the property doesn't devolve on the Government

Ans. [C]

Explanation :-

Section 29 of the Hindu Succession Act, 1956 embodies the principle of escheat. The doctrine of escheat postulates that where an individual dies intestate and does not leave behind an heir who is qualified to succeed to the property, the property devolves on the Government.

95. What is codicil?

- It is a schedule to any kind of will.
- It must be created by the original creator of will.
- It is an addendum of any kind to a will.

Codes:

- (A) i and ii
(B) ii and iv
(C) ii and iii
(D) iii and iv

Ans. [C]

Linked Provisions :-

Section 2(b) of the Indian Succession Act defines a codicil.

Explanation :-

A codicil is a legal document that allows a person to make changes to their will without having to create an entirely new will. It is used to add, remove, or modify provisions in a will, as long as the changes are not too significant.

96. In coparcenary property, each coparcener can acquire interest by

- (A) Partition
(B) Birth
(C) Attaining majority
(D) All of the above

Ans. [B]

Explanation :-

97. Under the Hindu Succession Act, 1956, daughter's son and father of a male Hindu are legal heirs and they are placed as the following

- (A) Both are placed as class I heir of the Schedule
- (B) Father is placed in class I and daughter's son is placed in class II of the Schedule

- (C) Daughter's son is placed as class I and father as class II heir of the Schedule
(D) Both are class II heirs of the Schedule

Ans. [C]

Explanation :-

Class I: Class I heirs include son, daughter, mother, widow and grandchildren, who can claim rights to a property. In the case of multiple surviving heirs, each is given a share of the property. If a widow or brother's widow remarries, then they can't claim any rights to a property.

Class II: Class II heirs are the father's brother, sister or any grandchildren and any siblings related directly by blood.

Ans. [D]

Explanation :-

Section 26 - Convert's descendants disqualified—Where, before or after the commencement of this Act, a Hindu has ceased or ceases to be a Hindu by conversion to another religion, children born to him or her after such conversion and their descendants shall be disqualified from inheriting the property of any of their Hindu relatives, unless such children or descendants are Hindus at the time when the succession opens.

99. In the case of Prakash vs Phulwati, 2016 2 SCC 36, the court dealt with

- (A) Section 5 of Hindu Succession Amendment Act, 2005
(B) Interpretation of Section 6 of Hindu Succession Act, 1956 as amended by Hindu Succession Amendment Act, 2005
(C) Question of retrospective application of Hindu Succession Amendment Act, 2005
(D) None of the above

Ans. [C]

Explanation :-

The case law on this issue has been unclear and contradictory so far. In Prakash v Phulavati (2016), a single-judge bench of the Supreme Court held that section 6, as amended in 2005, did not apply retrospectively, and thus only applied to those cases where both the father and his daughter were alive on the September 9th 2005, when the amendment came into effect.

100. The system of a joint family with its incident of succession by survivorship is a peculiarity of the Hindu law. The beneficial interest of each coparcener in Mitakshara law is liable to fluctuation, increasing by the death of another coparcener and decreasing by the birth of a new coparcener.
